LIFE'S WORK

Business journalist Rob Lewis talks about his jobs: the first, the best and the worst.

What was your first job?
When I was fifteen, I was a shop assistant in a bakery at the weekend. I was at work by 6.00 am every Saturday and Sunday. That was really difficult. I'm not an early morning person!

What was your best job?
My job now. I'm a journalist. It's well paid and it's different every day. I'm often on planes or trains and in hotels and offices around the world and I meet lots of interesting people. It's a great job, really.

What was your worst job?
When I was eighteen, I was a cook in a fast food restaurant for a few months. The managers weren't very nice and the job was boring and badly paid. It was very hot in there, too. Terrible!

Is a 'job for life' a good thing?
Not for me. After university, I was a marketing assistant for four years. It was okay but it wasn't very interesting. Then I was an office manager. That was good, but it was always the same. I think change is good for you.

3 Read the interview again. Put Rob's jobs in the correct order, from the past to now.
